

Flushing Financial Corporation Announces Receipt of Remaining Regulatory Approvals for Acquisition of Empire Bancorp, Inc.

Sep 21, 2020 4:30 PM

UNIONDALE and ISLANDIA, N.Y., Sept. 21, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- John R. Buran, President and CEO of Flushing Financial Corporation (“Flushing”) (NASDAQ- GS: FFIC) announced, “We are pleased that we have received all remaining approvals from the banking regulators to move forward on our acquisition of Empire Bancorp, Inc. (“Empire”) (OTC: EMPK). The transaction is expected to close effective on or about October 31, 2020. This acquisition will bring together two organizations with similar cultures and values, creating one of Long Island’s largest community banks by deposit share. We will create a community bank of superior scale and operational leverage enabling us to improve service to our customers, reduce costs and enhance shareholder value. The merger will expand Flushing’s presence on Long Island, a market of over 140,000 businesses with consumers having a median household income of over $100,000. We expect earnings accretion of 20% in 2021 with additional future opportunities as we build upon Empire’s business relationships.”

Douglas C. Manditch, President and CEO of Empire stated, “We believe the combination of these two strong community banks will further lever the significant investments both entities have made in people, processes and technology and positively impact our earnings potential. Empire will hold a special shareholders meeting on October 27, 2020 with the proxy materials for the meeting being mailed to each shareholder on or about September 25, 2020. The deadline for the process in which each Empire shareholder will have the opportunity to elect cash or stock consideration, subject to the allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 24, 2019, will be October 27, 2020. The election materials will be mailed to Empire shareholders at the same time as the proxy materials for the special meeting of Empire shareholders. The closing of the merger of Empire with and into Flushing remains subject to the approval of the Empire shareholders at the special meeting, as well as other customary closing conditions.”

Cautionary Notes on Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements may include: management plans relating to the proposed transaction; the expected timing of the completion of the proposed transaction; the ability to complete the proposed transaction; the ability to obtain any required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals; any statements of the plans and objectives of management for future operations, products or services, including the execution of integration plans relating to the proposed transaction; any statements of expectation or belief; projections related to certain financial metrics; and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “seek,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “could,” “would,” “target,” “outlook,” “estimate,” “forecast,” “project” and other similar words and expressions or negatives of these words. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time and are beyond our control. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Neither Flushing nor Empire assumes any duty and does not undertake to update any forward-looking statements. Because forward-looking statements are by their nature, to different degrees, uncertain and subject to assumptions, actual results or future events could differ, possibly materially, from those that Flushing or Empire anticipated in its forward-looking statements, and future results could differ materially from historical performance.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those included under Item 1A “Risk Factors” in Flushing’s Annual Report on Form 10-K as of December 31, 2019 and those disclosed in Flushing’s other periodic reports filed with the SEC, as well as the possibility that the expected benefits of the proposed transaction may not materialize in the timeframe expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the proposed transaction may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to the completion of the proposed transaction or thereafter, Flushing’s and Empire’s respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainty or other factors; that the parties are unable to successfully implement integration strategies related to the proposed transaction; that required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals are not obtained or other customary closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the companies’ shareholders, customers, employees and other constituents to the proposed transaction; and diversion of management time on merger-related matters. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed transaction, are more fully discussed in the proxy statement/prospectus that is included in the registration statement on Form S-4 filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction, as amended and supplemented from time to time. While the list of factors presented here and the list of factors presented in the registration statement on Form S-4 are, considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward looking statements. For any forward-looking statements made in this report or in any documents, Flushing and Empire claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Annualized, pro forma, projected and estimated numbers are used for illustrative purposes only, are not forecasts and may not reflect actual results.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the merger, Flushing filed a supplement to the registration statement on Form S-4 with the SEC, and Flushing's supplement to the registration statement, as amended, was declared effective by the SEC on September 21, 2020. Flushing may file other documents with the SEC regarding the merger. A definitive proxy statement/prospectus will be mailed to Empire shareholders on or about September 25, 2020. Before making any voting or investment decision, investors and shareholders of Flushing and Empire are urged to carefully read the entire registration statement, proxy statement/prospectus and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they contain important information about the merger. Copies of the registration statement, the proxy statement/prospectus (each as amended and supplemented from time to time) and other relevant documents filed with the SEC may be obtained free of charge from the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, from Flushing by sending a written request to Susan K.
