

Flushing Bank Continues its Support of Classroom, Inc. Program in Flushing, New York

Jul 11, 2016 9:30 AM

UNIONDALE, N.Y., July 11, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Flushing Financial Corporation (the "Company") (Nasdaq:FFIC), the parent holding company for Flushing Bank (the "Bank"), announced today that the Bank will be sponsoring a grant to Classroom, Inc., a New York based non-profit organization that supports students in low to moderate income areas. Flushing Bank's generous grant funds a special literacy and math program for P.S. 32 and P.S. 107 in Flushing, New York. The grant will support over 280 students.

John R. Buran, President and Chief Executive Officer stated: "We have been supporting Classroom, Inc. for the past nine years and are pleased to continue our support of such a worthwhile organization. They have designed a special literacy and math program that uses an innovative curriculum to help students gain essential academic skills. The program has been well received by school administrators, teachers, parents, and most importantly, students. This program is truly unique in that it provides our youth with a wide range of benefits from improved literacy and math skills to greater career awareness. At Flushing Bank, we believe in giving back to the communities we serve and educating our youth is one important way."
