

Flushing Bank Receives Favorable Rating from Kroll Bond Rating Agency

Nov 15, 2016 9:30 AM

UNIONDALE, N.Y., Nov. 15, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Flushing Financial Corporation (the "Company") (Nasdaq:FFIC), the parent holding company for Flushing Bank (the "Bank"), announced today that the Bank has received favorable ratings for both the Bank and the Company from Kroll Bond Rating Agency (KBRA), a Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organization (NRSRO) registered with the SEC. The announcement was made by John R. Buran, President and Chief Executive Officer.

The Bank and the Company received favorable ratings with a stable outlook of A-/K2 and BBB+/K2, respectively. According to KBRA's report, the Company's ratings are supported by improving asset quality, robust regulatory capital ratios, and deposit market share and earnings stability.

Mr. Buran stated: "We are very pleased with the results of the KBRA rating, which validates our strong financial performance and successful integration into the communities we serve. We have grown profitably over our 87 year history in both good and difficult times. Most recently, we were profitable throughout the Great Recession and its aftermath and continue to be profitable today. There has been remarkable consistency in our financial performance and growth in shareholder returns, including both stock prices and dividends over the last ten years."

About Kroll Bond Rating Agency

KBRA was established in 2010 in an effort to restore trust in credit ratings by creating new standards for assessing risk and by offering accurate and transparent ratings. KBRA is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as a Nationally Recognized Statistical Rating Organization (NRSRO) and is recognized by the National Association of Insurance Commission (NAIC) as a Credit Rating Provider (CRP). KBRA is a full-service rating agency whose mission is to set a standard of excellence and integrity.
