

Flushing Bank Investment Grade Ratings Affirmed by Kroll Bond Rating Agency, Inc.

Nov 27, 2017 5:30 PM

UNIONDALE, N.Y., Nov. 27, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Flushing Financial Corporation (the "Company") (Nasdaq:FFIC), the parent holding company for Flushing Bank (the "Bank"), announced today that Kroll Bond Rating Agency (KBRA), a full-service rating agency, affirmed its investment grade ratings for the Company and the Bank. These ratings are based on KBRA's Global Bank and Bank Holding Company Rating Methodology, which evaluates liquidity, asset quality, capital adequacy, and earnings.

The Company and the Bank received favorable ratings with a stable outlook of A-/K2 and BBB+/K2, respectively. According to KBRA's report, the Company's ratings are supported by stable and upward trending core operating performance since the economic downturn, solid capital profile, and deposit share competitiveness against larger institutions. This is the second consecutive year for which Flushing Bank received these same investment ratings from Kroll.

"We are very pleased with the results of the KBRA rating, which validates our strong financial performance and successful integration into the communities we serve. Our customer-centric philosophy built on a relationship-based approach to banking has enabled us to grow profitably in both good and difficult times. Most recently, we were profitable throughout the Great Recession and its aftermath and continue to be profitable today. There has been remarkable consistency in our financial performance and growth in shareholder returns, including both stock prices and dividends over the last ten years. Flushing Bank's ability to deliver stable, solid results – year after year, quarter after quarter is what earned us high marks again this year from Kroll. We are pleased that Kroll recognizes the value of our model to our company, our customers, and our shareholders," stated John R. Buran, President, and Chief Executive Officer.

About Kroll Bond Rating Agency
