UNIONDALE, N.Y., Jan. 21, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Flushing Financial Corporation (the "Company") (Nasdaq:FFIC), the parent holding company for Flushing Bank (the "Bank") announced that Maria Grasso, Chief Operating Officer of the Bank, has been named Chair of United Way of Long Island's Board of Directors.

John R. Buran, President and Chief Executive Officer stated, "Maria exemplifies a philanthropic spirit through her involvement with many charitable and not for profit organizations over the years. She has been a member of the Board of The United Way of Long Island for over 15 years. In her new role as Chair, they will continue to benefit from her tireless commitment and outstanding leadership."

Ms. Grasso is Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Flushing Bank with 30 years of experience in the commercial banking industry. She is an advocate of volunteerism and has volunteered for the March of Dimes, Long Island Care, Bias Help of Long Island, Women's Fund of Long Island, the American Cancer Society, and Long Island Association for AIDS Care and Long Island Network of Community Services. In addition, she has raised thousands of dollars for organizations such as the American Kidney Foundation, Carol M. Baldwin Breast Cancer Research Fund, Harbor Child Care, Long Island Museum and the YMCA of Long Island.

Ms. Grasso is a former chairperson of the Retail Banking Division Committee for the New York Bankers Association. She is currently a member of the National Board of the American Kidney Fund. Ms. Grasso recently received the Distinguished Volunteer Leadership Award at the Monsignor Hartmann Humanitarian Luncheon sponsored by ACIT. In 2013, she was honored by the American Kidney Fund, the Long Island Conservatory of Music and The Italian Board of Guardians. In 2011, Ms. Grasso was named Outstanding Executive by Adelphi University. In 2010, she was selected as a co-honoree at the Go Red for Women Luncheon benefiting the American Heart Association. In 2009, she was named as a Who's Who in Banking by Long Island Business News and honored as a 2009 Women Achievers Against the Odds by The Long Island Fund for Women and Girls. Ms. Grasso has also been honored by Cancercare of Long Island, Harbor Child Care, Long Island Museum, the YMCA and the Center for Business and Professional Women. She was also selected as one of the top 50 Long Island women and one of the top 10 Business Women of the Year in Queens. Ms. Grasso received an MBA from Adelphi University in 1989 and a BBA from Hofstra University in 1986.
