

Flushing Bank Receives Approval for Second Round of Grant Money from Federal Home Loan Bank of New York's (FHLB NY) Small Business Recovery Grant Program to Assist Local Small Businesses and Non-Profit Organizations

Jul 15, 2020 1:30 PM

UNIONDALE, N.Y., July 15, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Flushing Financial Corporation (the "Company") (Nasdaq: FFIC), the parent holding company for Flushing Bank (the "Bank"), announced today that the Bank has been approved for a second round of funding from the FHLB NY Small Business Recovery Grant Program. These funds are intended to support the financial security and health of workers employed by organizations that have suffered a decrease in revenue as a result of the ongoing COVID-19 crisis. The Bank will disburse the grant money to local small businesses and non-profit organizations in their market area.

John R. Buran, President and CEO, stated, "As a community bank, we recognize our responsibility to help small businesses and non-profit organizations who employ and support the individuals and families struggling in our communities. Each will play a critical role in the economic recovery of our local communities. Our continued participation in this grant program allows us to facilitate the distribution of available funds to these organizations at a time when they need it most."
